THE NATIONAL YOUTH DEVELOPMENT AGENCY IN COLLABORATION WITH THE AFRICAN PEER REVIEW MECHANISM (APRM) AND THE PAN AFRICAN PARLIAMENT (PAP) WITH HOSTS DEMOCRACY AND DEVELOPMENT INTERGENERATIONAL DIALOGUE

The National Youth Development Agency (NYDA) serves as a vital governmental institution dedicated to tackling the multifaceted challenges confronting South Africa's youth demographic.

As the Nation commemorates the 30th Anniversary of Democracy, the NYDA is pleased to announce its collaboration with the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) and Pan-African Parliament (PAP) in co-hosting the Development and Democracy Dialogue. This significant event is scheduled to take place at 8 am on the 30th of April 2024, in Midrand.

We are honoured to have distinguished speakers participating in this dialogue, including; President of the Pan-African Parliament - Hon Chief Fortune Charumbira, Hon. Dr. Naledi Pandor, Minister of International Relations and Cooperation, Hon. Maropene Ramokgopa; Minister in the Presidency: Planning, Monitoring, and Evaluation, Hon. Ronald Lamola; Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and Dr. Emma Kantema-Gaomas; Deputy Minister of Sport, Youth and National Service – Namibia.

This commemoration provides an invaluable opportunity for reflection on our historical journey, celebrating milestones achieved, and addressing the challenges overcome. The Development and Democracy Dialogue will serve as a platform for engaging discussions, exchange of ideas, and collaboration among stakeholders.

The Intergenerational Dialogue on Democracy and Development will bring together thought leaders, policymakers, youth representatives, and civil society organizations to explore avenues for enhancing democracy, promoting development, and empowering the youth.
