National Youth Development Agency Board embarks on a site visit to NYDA Sedibeng, Gauteng.

The National Youth Development board led by Executive Chairperson Ms, Asanda Luwaca will be visiting the NYDA offices in Sedibeng.

These site visits form part of the Board's commitment to strengthen NYDA's service delivery to the youth of South Africa.

The NYDA has committed to creating a high-quality customer service culture to add value and engage with young people on challenges affecting them, ensuring that every young person who has access to the NYDA is empowered.

The Board is of the belief that by conducting these site visits they get to experience first hand how young people relate and connect with the services at branch level.

Executive Chairperson, Ms. Luwaca said "It is critical for the NYDA Board to visit branches across the country in bid to interact with young people and , see the work done by our employees who are at the fore of youth development. The visit is one way for the Board to have close interaction with their beneficiaries and youth at large to gain insight into how to increase their value-add to deliver high quality products and service offerings."
